This is great Sophie. With this out of your life, you're now a step closer to your happiness
Now that obstacle, in other words, your father, no longer exist in this world

Shut up Let's go home, Sophie

Oh, by the way. This place was also Sophie's home, so I'll let it pass this time.

But, there won't be a next time.
Since this house is gone

You asked him to destroy your house?

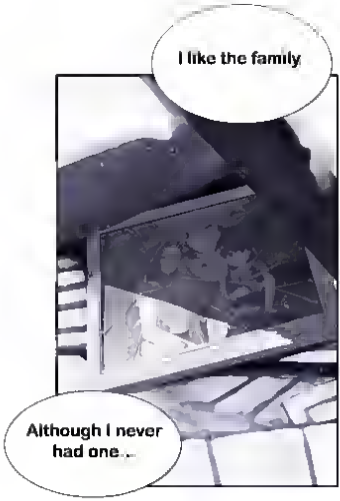
... Humans are hard to understand.
They create this useless thing called 'family' and they are bound to it for all eternity
There are many of us that thinks if 'family' doesn't exist, the humans would have developed significantly.
But I...



I like the family
Although I never had one...

I'm sure that there will be a way to solve this.
Let's work it out.
Pat
